

Chemical Destruction Community Advisory Board to Meet May 24

A Partnership for Safe Chemical Weapons Destruction

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

May 10, 2004

Richmond, Ky. -- The Chemical Destruction Community Advisory Board will meet on Monday, May 24, from 1-5 p.m. at Eastern Kentucky University's Carl D. Perkins Building located on Kit Carson Drive.

The board, which is co-chaired by Madison County Judge-Executive Kent Clark and Craig Williams, Director of the Chemical Weapons Working Group, will be discussing waste treatment and environmental permitting issues related to the chemical weapons destruction effort. In addition, board members will be receiving updates from the Blue Grass Army Depot, Blue Grass Chemical Activity, Program Manager for Assembled Chemical Weapons Alternatives, Bechtel Parsons Blue Grass and the Kentucky Department for Environmental Protection.

As diverse representatives of the local community, board members provide advice and citizen input on issues regarding the chemical weapons destruction project at the depot. The board, which meets quarterly, held its last meeting in February 2004.

All board meetings are open to the general public. There will be opportunities for public comment throughout the meeting.
